

NO-Biography

Norway

Norges Høyesterett

Toril Marie Øie

Chief Justice

President since: 1 March 2016

Justice of the Supreme Court since: 1 August 2004

Career before being justice of the Supreme Court:

Education, formal qualifications :

Law degree, University of Oslo, 1986

License to practice law, 1990

Positions:

Higher executive officer and acting legal adviser, Department of Legislation, Ministry of Justice 1986-1988

Deputy judge, acting judge and acting chief judge, Strømmen District Court, 1988-1990

Legal adviser, Department of Legislation, Ministry of Justice, 1990-2000

Head of Department, leader of the Unit for Criminal Law and Legal

Proceedings, Department of Legislation, Ministry of Justice 2000-2004

First lecturer II (part-time), Law Faculty, University of Oslo, 1994-2002

Appointments:

Member of the Norwegian Board of the Nordic Law Conferences since 2008

Member and later Chairman of the Board of Løvenskiold's Legacy 2005-2015

Subject editor of Norwegian Law Comments 2011-2015

Former member of the Board of the Norwegian Criminal Association

Publications:

Author and co-author of a number of books and articles, particularly in the fields of criminal law and procedural law